

Adult Program Trip

Raleigh Occupied 1865

Tuesday, April 10, 2018 or
Monday, April 16, 2018

Do you love history about the Civil War and/or Raleigh, NC? Then you will want to be this trip. Come with us for an entertaining time. We will be leaving from the Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road).

Take a trip back into time through Raleigh and the Civil War. Early on a rainy April 13, 1865 morning, Raleigh surrendered to advancing Union armies lead by General William Tecumseh Sherman. Join us as Dr. Ted R. Kunstling, President of the Raleigh Civil War Round Table takes us back in time when Raleigh was occupied by an invading force. Visit the historic structures still standing and sites which witnessed these dramatic events. Begin the trip with an informative presentation by Dr. Kunstling at the Mordecai House followed by a historical trolley tour of Raleigh (We ask that you bring a $10 donation with you the day of the trip to go to the Raleigh Civil War Round Table). Learn what it was like and hear the stories of the participants and residents during this time.

Due to limited trolley space we will be offering two tours on this day. Each trip will be exactly the same and will be leaving from and returning to the Anne Gordon Center for Active Adults.
